

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Migrant Health Promoter

Purpose of the Position:

The Migrant Health Promoter will distribute health care access information to farmers and farmworkers in his/her region, assist with paperwork completion for patient registration, coordinate health care services for migrant farmworkers in his/her region), and develop a working relationship with area health care centers and providers.

Skills Required	Qualities
Cultural and linguistic competence	Creative and resourceful
Knowledge of migrant farmworker community	Flexible
Experience coordinating services	Interested in health care
Interpersonal skills	Desire to work with migrant farmworkers
Knowledge of health care services in assigned region	Organized and thorough
Bilingual	Work independently with little supervision

Job responsibilities:

- 1) Disseminate information to farmworkers regarding safe and culturally competent health clinic and provider services
- 2) Distribute [Program Name] information to clinics and health care providers and appropriate community groups, coalitions, and community members in the assigned region
- 3) Coordinate and support health care access as needed including:
  - a. Health outreach visits
  - b. Patient registration completion
  - c. Appointment scheduling
  - d. Coordinating Transportation
  - e. Coordinating Interpretation
  - f. Follow-up
  - g. Billing
  - h. Maintain up-to-date database of farm visits, patient information, volunteer drivers, volunteer interpreters, and clinic information

Other Requirements

- a. Car, valid driver's license, and proper insurance
- b. Flexible schedule – may be asked to work some nights and weekends

Reports to Migrant Health Coordinator